Dear [REDACTED]

I refer to your request dated February 4th, pursuant to the Official Information Act 1982, seeking a list of vendors that have provided data science services to the Ministry of Transport in the last three years.

further clarifying that you define data science services as those:

that are conducting data cleaning, analysing data held by Ministry of Transport, building mathematical models, and/or developing algorithms for analytical or operational use, including through the use of statistical methods or machine learning.

Wherever possible our mathematical models, analytics and other statistical work are all carried out internally at the Ministry of Transport by our team of analysts.

The following table falls within the scope of your request

Organisation

Qrious Limited
CBG Health Research
